

Kelly Robotham

Kelly Robotham was born in Bronx, New York and raised in Miami. She is an alumnus of New World School of the Arts and holds a Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from The Juilliard School. Ms. Robotham danced with Ailey II for one year and was promoted to the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, where she danced from 2010-2014 and performed classical ballet, modern, jazz, hip hop, and contemporary masterpieces. In 2014, Ms. Robotham returned to her city, Miami, and worked briefly at Miami City Ballet as the Executive Assistant and Development Coordinator. Ms. Robotham joined the Thomas Armour Youth Ballet faculty in 2015 as Program Administrator of Arts Education as well as their main hip hop teacher for the Outreach Program. She also became the ballet director at Trendz Dance Technique Center where she prepares young dancers for a career in the dance world. Ms. Robotham is currently the Dance Director for Miami Arts Charter Homestead.

